Wonderful man and I had the pleasure of being his friend and working with him for a year in Rockport, Texas. I never will forget his humor and his life stories. I wish I had been able to see him one more time to tell him how very special he was to all who knew him, including me.

WOW- Today the world seems a little darker without the joy that Chris brought. I had the good fortune of meeting Chris back in the early 90's at Los Patios... I ALWAYS looked forward to him coming in....That night was the best of the week. He brought a lot of happiness to folks with his talent. He will be sorely missed. A true Texas Guitar Slinger.

My memories of Chris go way, way back. He was the best blues guitarist that I knew. He would always play some of my favorites ..like Statesboro Blues. Lately, he showed a well of strength, which was much to be admired. My condolences to Kamela, who I knew so well when she was little and to his wife. May he be in peace, but be jamming just the same!

The first time I saw Chris play was at the Main Street Bar on Wetmore Road. I remember leaving that night after the show on a musical high. For the next 3 weekends I brought different people to see him because I was that impressed with his music!! My thoughts and prayers to all of the family and friends. Be free Chris and so long...

I met Chris about 5 yrs. ago when he was selling RVs in Rockport, Texas @ Camper Clinic (don't go there) and formed a friendship with him. We fished ,we drank ,we smoked ,and howled at the moon ,but never hurt a soul while doing so. There are givers and takers in this world ,we lost another giver when 'Elvis', (inside joke), went to the biggest stage of a musicians life. I'm with Patti ,we'll need an address to send our 'Memorial Fund' to. E-mail me @ glengillum@att.net Suzanne y'all are all in our prayers, may you find peace soon. Bo~

We will always treasure Chris's appearance at the Texas Music Coalition's annual fundraiser last October at Rolling Oaks Sports Bar & Grill, when he honored us by taking the stage to jam with Ruben V, and we deeply appreciate his generous support of TMC. He will be missed. To the Holzhaus family, Please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. May you find peace and comfort in Jehovah God and all that he promises in his word the Bible. John 5:28,29 "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

I was so sad to read the news of Chris. I worked with him in the '80's. There was never a dull moment with him around. I learned so much from him about being an entertainer. He was really one of the greatest. He and his talent will be missed. My prayers are with his family. God Bless. Frances Ann
